STANDARD FEATURES AND SPECIFICATIONS

WHO WE ARE AND WHAT WE BELIEVE

Locally owned with deep roots in this community, we take great pride in the value offered to each client.

Our building associates are craftsmen, each dedicated to fulfilling your distinctive vision for your custom home, using only the finest in materials and modern building techniques. Our employees are dedicated customer service professionals focused on providing caring service to our homeowners.

Right-sized! That's us! Bud Bartley Custom Homes is small enough that everyone in the company will know about you and your new home, yet large enough to have purchasing power.

We often build homes for industry insiders, and have built multiple homes for the same families.

Bud Bartley Custom Homes builds in warmth and comfort, never forgetting that a home is where memories are born.
